Geopolymer Institute 1996

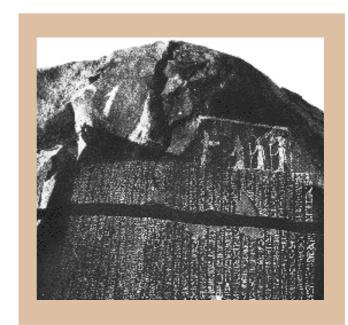

© ALL RIGTHS RESERVED

Geopolymer Institute
02100 SAINT-QUENTIN - France
www.geopolymer.org

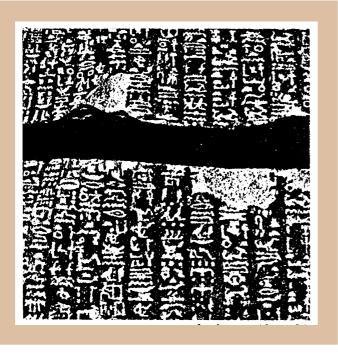

THE FAMINE STELE PROVIDES THE HIEROGLYPHIC NAMES OF CHEMICALS AND MINERALS INVOLVED IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF PYRAMIDS.

by J. Davidovits

Presented at the Vth International Congress of Egyptology, Cairo, Egypt, Oct. 1988.

The Famine Stele, island of Sehel, Elephantine, Egypt. 32 columns of hieroglyphic text (read from right to left).

Upper portion of columns 12 to 21 (read from right to left)

Col. 8 1 TO CONTRACT TO THE CONTRACT OF THE STATE O

Columns 12b to 22 (read from right to left)